DETAILS:

Chief Kevin Roberts "This pandemic will not deter us from keeping the residents of Clayton County safe."

The Clayton County Police Department prides itself on being innovative in our approach to tackling crime. After conducting thorough statistical research, Clayton County Police Department saw a need for a change in our response and we began to implement smaller proactive details, to include: road safety checks, roving patrols, traffic enforcement, and high visibility patrols through neighborhoods to combat the robberies, burglaries, and other major crimes that were occurring. The Clayton County Police Department has officers that are committed and willing to working overtime in order to accomplish the task of reducing crime.

We cannot forget the most important part of the equation, and that is the citizens of Clayton County. The Clayton County Police Department and the Clayton County Citizens are constantly working to build a bigger, better, and more positive relationship. We strive to always keep an open and positive dialogue between law enforcement and our citizens. We are in constant communication with our neighborhood watch programs, which play a pivotal part in helping Clayton County Police tackle crime. We want to remind our citizens of the outcome our partnership has produced; therefore, we have begun to post weekly reminders on our social media platforms for everyone to see
