Armed Robbery Gone Wrong – Murder Suspect in Custody in Clayton County

WHAT: Armed Robbery Gone Wrong – Murder Suspect in Custody in Clayton County

WHEN: August 30, 2020 @ 1557 hrs.

WHERE: 6300 block of Old Dixie Road, Jonesboro, GA 30236 (Clayton County)

DETAILS:

August 30, 2020, Clayton County Police Officers responded the 6300 block of Old Dixie Rd, Jonesboro, GA 30236 in reference to a person shot call. Officers located the victim (Loik Tyler, 36-year-old male) inside the location deceased. During the preliminary investigation, officers learned Mr. Tyler was found by a friend who then called the police. Surveillance showed a female with Mr. Tyler prior to his death.

Early into the investigation, Clayton County Police Detectives identified Brittany Wiley as a person of interest, as she was observed in the surveillance video prior to Mr. Tyler's death and knocking at the door at the time he was killed. Wiley also had an outstanding felony warrant for an unrelated charge in Clayton County.

On Friday, October 30, 2020, Rockdale County Sheriff's Office obtained a tip that Wiley was employed at a local convenience store. Rockdale County Sheriff's Office was able to take Wiley into custody on the outstanding felony warrant.

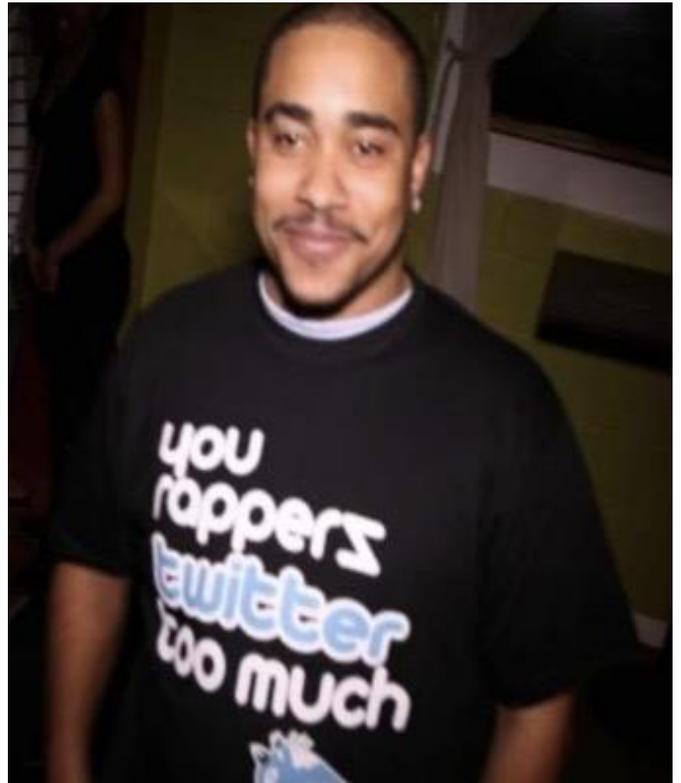

With the assistance of the Clayton County Sheriff's Office, Wiley was transported back to the Clayton County Police Department to be interviewed. During the interview, Wiley confessed to her involvement in Mr. Tyler's homicide. Wiley advised it was an armed robbery she helped set-up, that went wrong. Wiley has been charged with Felony Murder, Armed Robbery, and Aggravated Assault. The investigation is still ongoing at this time.

Loik Tyler picture is being used with the permission of the family.
